

Event live on WorkPoint

WorkPoint Entertainment will show live the Asian Games on three platforms — TV, YouTube and Facebook, the company said yesterday.

The 18th Asian Games will be held in Indonesia from Aug 18-Sept 2 with football matches taking place ahead of the opening ceremony.

The firm, Thailand's broadcaster of the event, will begin showing live the Asian Games on Aug 14 when the Thai women's handball team play Japan at 1.50pm and the Thai men's football team take on Qatar at 6.50pm.

Fans can watch live events at WorkPoint TV (channel 23), YouTube WorkPoint Official and Facebook page WorkPoint Entertainment.

TGA president Rangsrud Luxitanonda, centre, and his players.